YORKSHIRE ODDITIES,

INCIDENTS, and STRANGE EVENTS.

By S. BARING-GOULD, M.A., Author of "Curious Myths of the Middle Ages," &c.

"This is a curious collection of strange memoirs and wild stories such as a county where every other man is a character is sure to produce."—The Guardian.

"This book is a valuable addition to English literature. It is no ephemeral work, but one which will live in the language as a text-book of the particular matters of which it treats. It will be an unfailing source of entertainment and instruction, for it not only affords amusement, but at the same time supplies abundance of material for reflection, which is sure to be appreciated by the thoughtful reader."—Morning Post.

"Mr. Baring-Gould has done his work extremely well..... These volumes will almost certainly be popular in Yorkshire; but they are written in such quaint and scholarly fashion that they deserve and will no doubt obtain more general interest and attention."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"This book deserves and will ultimately obtain a large sale. It is as amusing as Dean Ramsay's famous work, and almost as instructive as 'Chambers's Domestic Annals.'"—Sheffield Daily Telegraph.

"To Yorkshiremen many of them will be quite new, but all alike will find in them ample matter for amusement and to make a leisure hour pass agreeably. . . . We know of no book we should so willingly recommend to our readers."—Land and Water.

A more extraordinary collection of odd characters we have never met with."—The Tablet.

"These delightful volumes."—Derby Mercury.

"Mr. Baring-Gould's interesting book, with its oddities, its legends, and its ghost stories, will be found as entertaining a companion as could well be desired."—The Field.

"We believe that this book will be extensively read."—Yorkshire Post.

"These Yorkshire memoirs form just the book to be taken up at odd moments. It is quite as interesting as a novel."—Church Review.

"Well-meaning ghosts, impenitent murderers, jolly infidels, hypocritical Methodists, and holy Papists form the staple of these two volumes."—The Rock.

By the same Author.

THE LIVES OF THE SAINTS.

To be completed in Twelve Vols., each complete in itself, and containing one Month of the Calendar, price 7s.

JANUARY to JULY. Second Edition.

AUGUST. One Vol., price 7s.

SEPTEMBER. " "

OCTOBER. " "

[In the Press.

"He tells the most graceful legends in a style equally graceful and fascinating, and with a distinctiveness and elaboration of minute details which shows plainly that he is a consummate master of the poetic art. . . . We are glad to testify that he has shown, along with much elegance and taste, a far larger share of judgment and discrimination than most writers who have attempted to deal with matters more or less legendary in their nature. . . . Mr. Baring-Gould thus far has accomplished a most anxious task most successfully."—The Times.

"It is a glorious collection, and the manner of telling the legends is delightful."—Monthly Packet.

"He tells his stories with much simplicity, feeling, and grace. His 'Lives of the Saints' must be pronounced a decided success."—Spectator.

"This may be pronounced without affectation a beautiful and, what is better, an honestly performed work. . . . We are charmed with its catholicity of tone, its deep and broad reading, its charity even towards those who spilled the blood of God's saints in the cruel persecutions which at various times afflicted the Church. The sketch of St. John Chrysostom is a piece of marvellous condensation of the events of that great confessor's life, and a most vivid appreciation of the ecclesiastical exigencies of his position."—Westminster Gazette.

"The March volume, like the preceding ones, fully carries out the original intention of the author. In its own line a compendium of valuable information, beautifully, simply, and reverentially written, this edition of the 'Lives of the Saints' cannot fail to be productive of immense good, and we wish it the widest possible circulation."—Dublin Review (second notice).

"A well-digested and popularly arranged work, the lives of these saintly personages is no ordinary or easy task; but Mr. Baring-Gould brings to it nearly all the requisites that can be desired—quaint and curious learning, an untiring excavator of every kind of lore, intimately acquainted with mediæval matters, a conscientious writer who unites diligence and research to good taste and kindly feeling, the reading public will follow his bent reap no small advantage in being in his hands."—Morning Post.

NEW SYSTEM OF LIFE ASSURANCE.

THE POSITIVE GOVERNMENT SECURITY

LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY (Limited).

Chief Offices, 31 Cannon Street, London, E.C.

POSITIVE POLICIES are UNCONDITIONAL, INDISPUTABLE, and NON-FORFEITABLE.

1. Unconditional, being free from all conditions of every kind restrictive of the Assured, except the due payment of Premiums.

2. Indisputable, as no object on whatever can be raised on any ground after the policy has been issued; even the Age of the assured being admitted, upon evidence called for when the Policy is issued, instead of being left, as under the ordinary system, until it becomes a claim.

3. Non-forfeitable, because every Premium purchases a fully Paid-up Policy or Positive Note for the relative proportion that the Premium bears to the Sum Assured, which Positive Note never lapses, but remains in force till death, whether subsequent Premiums are Paid or not.

STATEMENT OF LIFE BUSINESS, as on December 31, 1874.

Policies in Force.	Amount Assured.	Annual Premium Income.	Life Assurance Fund.

TWENTY POUNDS PRIZE.

A PRIZE of TWENTY POUNDS will be given for the BEST ESSAY (a moderate pamphlet size) showing that there is no linguistic Canon or Law against the existence of Mixed Languages (as some modern professors arbitrarily and dogmatically assert) in general both in Europe and elsewhere, and that the present English language in particular is a mixed language in grammar, pronunciation, and vocabulary, being halfway between the German (Low) and French (Old), or, more scientifically, between the Teutonic and Romance.

The Essays to be sent in before August 1, 1875.
The name, &c., of the writer to be sent in a separate sealed envelope, which will not be opened till the award is made.

The Prize Essays will be submitted to leading unbiased and impartial Philologists, both British and American, and afterwards printed and read at one of the meetings of one of the first Literary Societies of London.

No award will be made unless the Judges are satisfied with the merits of one Essay at least.

P.S.—Essays to be sent to "Essay," care of R. HONNE and Co., Booksellers, 30 Edgware Road, London, W.

Five Pounds will be awarded to the second-best Essay, if sufficiently good.

No MSS. returned.

RHEEA, OR CHINA GRASS FIBRE.

The Secretary of State for India in Council has decided, in the event of a sufficient number of competitors coming forward, to make arrangements for a series of trials to take place in this country early in November next, with the object of ascertaining the best methods for the preparation of the Rheeia fibre, from either the fresh or the dried plant, by mechanical, chemical, or other means.

The necessary space, motive power, water, and other facilities will be supplied by the Government, but competitors will have to arrange for the working of their machines or processes under their own supervision or of their representatives. The utmost care will be taken to secure reliable results, and to make public the whole of the details connected with the experiments, but it is not intended that any prize shall be awarded on the occasion.

Forms of application for taking part in the proposed competition, together with samples of the Rheeia, in its dried state, may now be obtained from the undersigned. Samples of fresh Rheeia will probably be also available for distribution in the course of a few weeks.

The exact date and place of the trial will be subsequently announced.

The UNSEEN UNIVERSE; or, Physical Speculations on a Future State.

"This book is one which well deserves the attention of thoughtful and religious readers.....It is a perfectly sober inquiry, on scientific grounds, into the possibilities of a future existence.....We may or may not be able to understand or accept the subtle theory by which the authors endeavour to establish an alliance between systems which are often supposed to be antagonistic, but it is a sufficient reason for inviting the respectful attention of our readers to this remarkable book that men thoroughly versed in natural science should have made the effort, and, at least to their own satisfaction, should have succeeded." Guardian.

IN the STUDIO: a Decade of Poems. By

SEBASTIAN EVANS, Author of "Brother Fabian's Manuscript." Extra fcap. 8vo, 5s. [This day.]

"A volume so far superior to what is commonly put forth as poetry, has too much real power and artistic skill to make it doubtful for a moment that it will find a far larger and appreciative circle of readers and admirers than that of the author's own local friends."—Birmingham Daily Post.

WHAT WE SAW in AUSTRALIA. By

ROSAMOND and FLORENCE HILL. Crown 8vo, 10s. 6d. [This day.]

"The history of their travels is set before the reader in an unaffected style that wins by its very simplicity. To those who have friends in Australia, we commend this modest volume, as giving a faithful picture of life at the Antipodes." Globe.

LADY DUFF GORDON'S LAST

LETTERS from EGYPT, to which are added Letters from the Cape. With a Memoir by her DAUGHTER, and Portrait engraved by JEENS after Phillips. Crown 8vo, 9s.

"One puts down the delightful book with a heavy sigh, evoked partly at the thought of the death of the warm-hearted and accomplished lady whose letters one has been reading, partly by regretful wonder why the numerous ladies who now favour us with books of travel cannot contrive to write with a little of Lady Duff Gordon's simple, natural, bright, unaffected manner."—Standard.

The DUKE and the SCHOLAR, and other

Essays. By T. L. KINGTON OLIPHANT, M.A. 8vo, 7s. 6d. [This day.]

"This volume contains one of the most beautiful biographical essays we have had since Lord Macaulay's days." Standard.

INDIAN PUBLIC WORKS, and Cognate

Indian Topics. By W. T. THORNTON, C.B., Secretary for Public Works in the India Office, Author of "A Treatise on Labour," &c. Crown 8vo, 8s. 6d. [This day.]

"Mr. Thornton, from his position in the India Office, is thoroughly qualified to write on the subject, with which he has evidently made himself perfectly familiar. The portions of the book which relate to the construction of railways, the Government guarantee, the utility of the Government taking up the railways as the date for its option to do so arrives, and the advisability of the further construction of lines of railway and irrigation canals, are specially interesting." Standard.

From the TIMES.

"Dr. Daseant is never so much at home as with the Norsemen or among the fjords, fields, and islands of the wild Northern scenery. A student of the Sagas and an admirer of the Scalds, the life of these Norse warriors is almost as much a reality to him as that of the Icelanders or Faroe fishermen of the present day. Nor do we know that he could have chosen a more picturesque period for his novel than the tenth century."

THE LIFE OF CHRIST.

BY THE

Rev. F. W. FARRAR, D.D., F.R.S.

Master of Marlborough College, and Chaplain in Ordinary to the Queen.

From the Times.

"The value of the book in reference to sceptical objections will be that it exhibits in a most favourable form the aspect which the life of Christ bears when regarded from an orthodox point of view. No thoughtful mind will rise from the perusal of this book without feeling that it reveals a beautiful and a harmonious conception. It will serve to raise the mind from mere objections in detail to a comprehensive view of the whole subject, and it will at the least assist candid objectors to do justice to the Christian traditions."

From the Quarterly Review.

"Dr. Farrar may certainly be congratulated upon a literary success to which the annals of English theology present no parallel. . . . It is impossible, in the space at our disposal, to do justice to what we feel the most valuable element of Dr. Farrar's work—the art, namely, with which he places us in the presence of the Great Teacher, and enables us not merely to follow the trains of his thought, but often to detect their subtle sources, or trace them in their secret working upon the minds of friendly or hostile listeners."

From the Guardian.

"We have, in every page, the result of an intimate acquaintance with the literature bearing upon his great subject, while the quotations and references in the notes, more especially intended for the learned reader, substantiate the author's claim that 'without intending to be exhaustive or specially erudite,' his pages 'contain much that men of the highest learning have thought and ascertained.'"

THE LIBRARY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE.

By HENRY MORLEY.

Professor of English Literature at University College, London.

"The publishers of this work on English Literature, which we look upon as a national work of the highest aim and interest, are to be congratulated on securing as an editor Mr. Henry Morley, whom we gladly recognize as a very high authority on such a subject, and on the plan on which he proposes to carry out such an undertaking as this, which has nowhere yet been fully realised."—Standard.

"If we may judge by the first part, 'Cassell's Library of English Literature,' edited by Professor H. Morley, will be superior to any work of the kind which has been put before the general public. The pieces selected are interesting, and the notes are full of useful information."—Athenaeum.

"Messrs. Cassell, Petter & Galpin have produced many works of solid value; but we question if they have ever published one which does them the amount of credit which the present book will reflect upon them, if it is continued and finished as it has been begun. It will be warmly welcomed by scholars; while it is sold in a form and at a price which places it within the reach of the poorest scholar in the land."—Literary World.

HURST & BLACKETT'S
NEW WORKS.

OUR BISHOPS and DEANS. By the Rev. F. ARNOLD, B.A., late of Christchurch, Oxford. 2 vols. demy 8vo, 30s.

"This work is good in conception, and cleverly executed; and as thoroughly honest and earnest as it is interesting and able. The style is original, the thought vigorous, the information wide, the portraiture artistic. There is not a chapter that any intelligent reader is likely to leave unfinished or to find uninteresting."—John Bull.
"We think it will be admitted that Mr. Arnold has achieved his task with a large amount of success. He presents a general view of what the Church has been doing during the last forty years; but the bulk of the work is taken up with sketches of the leaders with whose names contemporary Church history is associated. Mr. Arnold is thus able to give a personal interest to his narrative, and to cast many side lights on the influences which have determined the direction of events. He displays considerable power of seizing the salient points of a striking character, and presenting them in a clear and forcible style."—Globe.

COSITAS ESPAÑOLAS; or, Every-Day LIFE IN SPAIN. By Mrs. HARVEY, of Ickwellbury. 1 vol. 8vo, 15s.

"A charming book: fresh, lively, and amusing. It may be confidently recommended to all readers who want to know something about the inner life of Spain."—Morning Post.
"In this amusing book Mrs. Harvey sketches a series of cabinet pictures, each a gem in its way, giving her readers vivid glimpses into Spanish life as it is."—Globe.

RAMBLES in ISTRIA, DALMATIA, and MONTENEGRO. By R. H. R. 1 vol. demy 8vo, 14s.
"A delightful narrative of travel."—Messenger.

A ROSE in JUNE. By Mrs. Oliphant. CHEAP EDITION, forming the New Volume of "HURST & BLACKETT'S STANDARD LIBRARY." 5s., bound.

WORDS of COUNSEL on some of the CHIEF

DIFFICULTIES of THE DAY, bequeathed to the Church in the Writings of SAMUEL WILBERFORCE, late Lord Bishop of Winchester; collected and arranged by THOMAS VINCENT FOSBERY, M.A., Hon. Chaplain to the Bishop; sometime Vicar of St. Giles's, Reading. Crown 8vo, cloth, 7s. 6d.

"All Churchmen will feel indebted to Mr. Fosbery for having published this admirable selection from the Charges, Addresses, and Sermons of one of the greatest, most learned, and most popular of English divines. At all times such a collection would be valuable—at the present time it is doubly so. The moderation, the thought, the judgment, and the power manifested throughout the work are most striking."—Standard.

LETTERS of SPIRITUAL COUNSEL and GUIDANCE. By the late Rev. J. KEBLE, M.A., Vicar of Hursley. Edited, with a New Preface, by R. F. WILSON, M.A., Vicar of Rownhams, &c. Third Edition, much enlarged, post 8vo, cloth, 6s.

"We would fain put it into the hands of every carping or censorious disputant and caviller who esteems it a mark of superior liberality or of greater orthodoxy to exhibit his dissatisfaction with the rules of faith laid down by the Church of his fathers."—Scottish Guardian.

CACAOINE. (REGISTERED.)

Cacaoine is a preparation of Cacao without sugar or any admixture whatever.

Cacaoine is very acceptable as a light refreshing drink for use in the later hours of the day. With Homoeopaths it takes the place of Tea, having very little consistence—not more than that of Coffee.

Cacaoine, to those who have been in the habit of using Cacao Nibs, has proved a great boon, as it does away with all the trouble attending the preparation of Nibs—Cacaoine itself being nothing more than very choice Nibs that have been submitted to a very ingenious patented process, by which the principal part of the oil has been removed. This scientific removal of the oil renders the beverage preparable from Cacaoine incomparably more delicate and attractive than any that the crude Nibs afford, besides that Cacaoine requires but to be boiled for a few minutes to be ready for the table.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.—Pour half-a-pint of boiling water on a piled tea-spoonful of the Cacaoine, and then boil ten minutes or so in a Cacaoiere—a vessel which needs no superintendence, as the contained liquid cannot boil over.

Prepared on 1y in Packets and Tins, labelled

JAMES EPPS & CO.,

48 Threadneedle Street, and 170 Piccadilly.

* Cacaoieres—for 1 pint, 1s.; 1 pint, 1s. 3d.; 2 pints, 1s. 9d.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa,
Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast-tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.

MOODY AND SANKEY.

AMERICAN ORGANS in every variety of CRAMER'S Manufacture and on CRAMER'S Three Years System.

Prices from 15 Guineas, or £1 11s. 6d. a Quarter.

CRAMER and Co. by no means wish it to be understood, as in some quarters it would seem to have been, that their AMERICAN ORGANS are used by Messrs. Moody and Sankey at their interesting meetings.

CRAMER'S instruments are much more solid in manufacture, and infinitely superior in quality of tone, and are certainly not open to the objection made by perhaps the most influential literary and musical journal to the imported organs:—
"Judged from the artistic point of view, the instrument is no more agreeable to the ear than is the stentorian power displayed by the singer."

Moreover, while CRAMER'S AMERICAN ORGANS are more satisfactorily made, and better finished in all respects, they are sold at prices varying from 15 to 25 per cent. below those of all imported instruments.

These, and all other instruments of CRAMER'S manufacture, can be had on the three years system, which, originated by CRAMER'S, has been partially adopted by other firms, but is carried out on a thoroughly large and liberal scale only by themselves.

HOW TO SELECT AN OFFICE for LIFE ASSURANCE.

Extract from Board of Trade's Report, July 2, 1874.

"Taking Insurance business as it exists in this country, the Public cannot be misled if, when seeking an Office in which to effect an Insurance, they select one which transacts its business at a small percentage of working cost, and does not anticipate its profits."

THESE TESTS ARE ENTIRELY FULFILLED BY THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY, the Report itself showing that of all the English Provincial Offices and all the Scotch Offices, the Royal's Ratio of Expenses to its Premium Income is the Lowest, and the Company have never anticipated a Single Shilling of Profit.

Extract from "The Times" of July 24, 1874.

"On the whole, it would be safe for the Father of a Family, contemplating the Insurance of his Life, to select one of the Offices with a Large Life Fund, a Small Expenditure on Management, and a Rate of Interest ranging from 4·2 to 4·5 per cent."

"THE ROYAL"

ENTIRELY MEETS THE WHOLE OF THESE REQUIREMENTS.

Its Life Fund is close upon Two Millions Sterling; its Expenses are Lower than those of any other English Provincial Office, and of any Scotch Office; and its rate of Interest is 4·4 per cent.

LIFE FUNDS	£1,761,523
GENERAL RESERVE	£594,434
PAID-UP CAPITAL	£289,545

"We have examined and counted every Security, and have found all correct and in perfect order, and that the present aggregate market value is in excess of the amounts in the Balance-sheet."—From Auditors' Report, July 17, 1874.

"As evidence of the care exercised in the Investment of the Life Funds, it may be mentioned that they have never been reduced a single penny by bad or doubtful securities."—From Chairman's Speech at Annual Meeting, August 7, 1874.

In course of Publication.

The DRAMATIC WORKS of SHAKESPEARE

(Aldine Edition) in Ten Volumes, 2s. 6d. each, published Monthly. Vol. VIII., containing "Titus Andronicus," "Romeo and Juliet," "Timon of Athens," and "Julius Caesar," on July 1.

This edition, which is printed in clear, readable type, is specially suited for the use of Reading Societies and all who wish to secure handiness of size without sacrificing legibility of text. The cheapness of these volumes places a recognised and scholarlike edition, well printed and neatly bound, within the reach of everyone.

Uniform with the above, 2s. 6d.

CRITICAL ESSAYS on the PLAYS of SHAKESPEARE.

By W. WATKISS LLOYD.

These essays, originally published with the plays, are now issued separately, for the convenience of those who have other editions.

SAMUEL TINSLEY'S NEW PUBLICATIONS.

READY.

HOW I SPENT MY TWO YEARS' LEAVE; or, My Impressions of the Mother Country, the Continent of Europe, the United States of America, and Canada. By AN INDIAN OFFICER. In 1 vol. 8vo, handsomely bound, price 12s.

SECOND EDITION of UNTRODDEN SPAIN, and her BLACK COUNTRY. Being Sketches of the Life and Character of the Spaniard of the Interior. By HUGH JAMES ROSE, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford; Chaplain to the English, French, and German Mining Companies of Linares; and formerly Acting Chaplain to Her Majesty's Forces at Dover Garrison. In 2 vols. 8vo, price 30s.

The SATURDAY REVIEW says:—"His title of 'Untrodden Spain' is no misnomer. He leads us into scenes and among classes of Spaniards where few English writers have preceded him. . . . We can only recommend our readers to get it and search for themselves. Those who are most intimately acquainted with Spain will best appreciate its varied excellences."

The SPECTATOR says:—"The author's kindness is as conspicuous as his closeness of observation and fairness of judgment; his sympathy with the people inspires his pen as happily as does his artistic appreciation of the country; and both have combined in the production of a work of striking novelty and sterling value."

SAINT SIMON'S NIECE. By FRANK LEE BENEDICT, Author of "Miss Dorothy's Charge," &c. 3 vols., 31s. 6d.

From the Scotsman, June 11, 1875:—"Mr. Frank Lee Benedict may not be generally recognised as such, but he is one of the cleverest living novelists of the school of which Miss Braddon was the founder and remains the chief. He is fond of a 'strong' plot, and besprinkles his stories abundantly with startling incidents. . . . The author's purpose was not, probably, to point any moral; yet there is a lesson to be learnt from his powerful picture of the way in which the designs of a brilliant, unscrupulous, yet not wholly bad woman, for revenge on those she hates, and for the attainment of her own happiness, are brought to nothing, and recoil upon herself. There is a savour of anti-climax about the closing chapters; otherwise the story is written with remarkable ability, and its interest is thoroughly well sustained."

GRANTHAM SECRETS. By PHOEBE M. FEILDEN. 3 vols., 31s. 6d.

"The plot is comparatively new, and, though rather complicated, is well worked out: and some of the characters are delineated with considerable force and appreciation of dramatic effect. . . . The story is gracefully written, and has a tone of wholesome earnestness and purity throughout."—Scotsman.

"It is undoubtedly what many people would call a very pleasing story. . . . The merit of this book consists in its refined tone, and in the real touches of nature which greet us in the character of Margaret. . . . The story shows considerable promise, and some power over the passions."—Pall Mall Gazette.
